

Player's Code of Behaviour

- Play by the rules.
- Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain approach the official during the break. A coach or manager may politely approach the official during a break or after the competition where it may not be age appropriate for the captain to do so.
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials or other players, deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent is not acceptable or permitted in any sport.
- Work equally hard for yourself and/or your team, as your team's performance will benefit, so will you.
- Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are by your team or the opposition.
- Treat all players, as you would like to be treated. Do not interfere with, bully or take unfair advantage of another player.
- Co-operate with your coach and their decisions, teammates and opponents.
- Play for the fun of it, and not just to please parents and coaches.
- Inappropriate language (swearing), bullying or violence will not be tolerated by the club, and will be dealt with accordingly.

Parent's Code of Behaviour

- Remember that children play sport for their enjoyment, not yours.
- Encourage children to participate, do not force them.
- Focus on the child's efforts and performance rather than winning and losing.
- Encourage children to always participate according to the rules.
- Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a game.
- Remember that children learn best by example. Applaud good plays by all teams.
- Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities.
- Respect coaches and officials' decisions and teach children to do likewise.
- Show appreciation of volunteer coaches, officials and administrators. Without them, your child could not participate.
- Inappropriate language (swearing), bullying or violence will not be tolerated by the club, and will be dealt with accordingly.
- Parents should respect team huddles being exclusive to players, the coach and the manager.

Coach's Code of Conduct

- Remember that children participate for pleasure and that winning is only part of the fun.
- Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing.
- Be reasonable in your demands on young players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Teach your players to follow the rules.
- Whenever possible, group players to ensure that everyone has a reasonable chance at success.
- Avoid overplaying the talented players. The just-average need and deserve equal time.
- Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate for the age and ability of the players.
- Develop team respect for the ability of opponents and for the judgement of officials and opposing coaches.

- Follow the advice of a physician when determining when an injured player is ready to commence training or competition.
- Keep up to date with the latest coaching practices and the principles of growth and development of children.
- Inappropriate language (swearing), bullying or violence will not be tolerated by the club, and will be dealt with accordingly.
- Coaches must advise the Coaching Coordinator when they will be absent from training/s or game/s

Officials' Code of Behaviour

- Compliment and encourage all participants.
- Be consistent, objective and courteous when making decisions.
- Condemn unsporting behaviour and promote respect for all opponents.
- Emphasise the spirit of the game rather than errors.
- Be a good sport yourself. Actions speak louder than words.
- Remember, you set an example. Your behaviour and comments should be positive and supportive.
- Inappropriate language (swearing), bullying or violence will not be tolerated by the club, and will be dealt with accordingly.

Umpires Code of Conduct

- Umpires are bound by the rules of the game, which should always be implemented in a polite and professional manner.
- It is the responsibility of the umpire to maintain control of the game, ensuring it is fair and safe
- Players should be treated with respect, and where players behaviour may breach the code of appropriate behaviour, measures should be taken in line with current rules.
- Inappropriate language or swearing should never be used by an umpire.

All Stars Representative Level Players

- Players code of behaviour applies at club and representative level.
- Representative players of All Stars will also be required to adhere to the code of conduct of the Representative Association.
- Representative players are still required to attend club training sessions and grading days as required.
- Inappropriate language (swearing), bullying or violence will not be tolerated by the club, and will be dealt with accordingly.
